■ Cafe Ceres, 390 Sharrowwale Road, Hunters Bar
A cafe by day, French bistro by night (Fridays and Saturdays), there is a very Gallic menu from owner - chef Jean-Paul Strappazon with classics such as onion soup, duck a l'orange, thyme flavoured roast chicken, peppered steak and (always on the menu) banana crepes.

Cafe Ceres has two tiny dining rooms, one of which is upstairs, and two courses won't cost you very much more than a tenner. Even better, you can bring your own wine (corkage £1.50). If you don't mind the custard yellow walls and the toilet down the bottom of the garden, this is for you. And it's very authentic.

Open Fri-Sat night. Tel 0114 267 9090.
